User-Focused

We are a product company so we are always putting our users first. We relish in diving deep into user psychology and understanding what makes them tick.

WHAT MAKES US SPECIAL

Transparency

We truly value open-mindedness and transparency when we communicate. We believe it is the best way to build trust within teams.

Ownership

We believe that we are accountable for our company's successes and failures, and treat the company's long-term goals as our own.

Ethics

We strive to maintain the highest standards with our customers, and we work to only make promises that we know we can keep.

Diversity

We value diversity among our teams because it brings in innovative ideas and helps us broaden our worldview. Our hiring philosophy is based on this as well.

Fun

We work hard but we also make time every day for fun. We truly believe that a team that plays together, stays together.
